Conducted By The Sisters Of Mercy

The seasons, like faces, express emotions and unite into a family, forming the 1979-80 school year.

In 1964, McAuley High School honored its first graduating class with the celebration of commencement exercises. There, girls remembered fondly their days as freshmen with pride and fulfillment; they remembered their joys and sorrows, their problems and triumphs in being known as the first class of McAuley . . .

Because of the tight conditions at Mercy in 1958, the Archdiocese asked the Sisters of Mercy to open a new school in the Cincinnati Area. The Sisters of Mercy considered this a privilege and another opportunity to bring the gospel to young women. With the donation of the land by Archbishop Alter, and the $3,000,000 loan used for the building, they held the formal ceremony of the ground breaking in August, 1958. This ceremony, along with the community mass at the cathedral and the tea in the Archbishop's arbor, were among the features of the celebration of the Sisters of Mercy's centenary of their work in the Archdiocese.

McAuley wasn't supposed to open until the building was thoroughly complete; however, in 1960, an excessive number of freshman registered at Mercy. It was decided that McAuley would open early to support the girls who wished to attend catholic high schools. The provincial appointed Sr. Mary Emily as McAuley's first principal, and Sr. Johanna, Sr. Amadeus, and Sr. Perpetua were also members of the new faculty. They had input, along with Mercy teachers, on the plans and uniform styles. So, a begun, but incomplete McAuley opened in 1960.

The girls had only one floor of classrooms, no gym, and they had to trudge over construction to get from class to class. A cafeteria was lacking, and everyone ate lunch at the same time. The girls brown-bagged their food, although a huge cooler of milk was supplied. Finally, in May, 1960, the building was completed and named after Mother Mary Catherine McAuley, the foundress of the Mercy Sisters.

McAuley has come a long way since 1960. Before 1967, when the mod schedule was formed, periods were one hour long, consisting of 45 minutes of instruction and 15 minutes of supervised study for each subject. The drama department has grown and has been perfected in the training of its students and in the production of a musical each year. Since 1966, McAuley has entered a huge float in the St. Patrick's Day Parade. But the best illustration of our Irish heritage is present in the colors of our uniforms.

The biggest change in McAuley deals with the Girls' Athletic Program. In the 1960's, students could participate in intramural activities and physical education classes. They also played "crazy games" against Mercy. The GGCL and the formation of interscholastic sports developed over the years, with soccer added in 1979.

The McAuley senior class of 1964 has a right to feel even more proud than they did on their graduation day. But McAuley has progressed and changed, and the 1980 graduating class is the present symbol of the 20 years of growth McAuley has undergone since 1960.

into new experiences.
We challenge ourselves
in the activities we pursue.
Our friends are our family,
Closeness develops as the year proceeds,
Knowing that in the end,
their friendship is here to stay.

The halls of McAuley are roamed by many different people, from athletes to actresses, club members, student council officers and teachers. Each have their separate interests and goals, but combined they are McAuley.

Teacher Appreciation Day, Big — lil' sis picnic, Spirit Week, pom-poms, "It's You and Me Against the World," African Jee-Jee Bugs, 27th Heaven, berry and lemon sweaters, it's all us, it's all McAuley.

Underneath our plaid skirts and white starched blouses lie many different personalities. On the outside we are uniform, but internally we are individuals. Our nametag is our identity, but our individuality goes deeper.

Every student has some creative talents in her. How well developed they are, is what separates the McAuleyan artist from the rest. People are constantly creating things; assignments, poetry, decorations, music and moods. Creating a certain mood can easily influence what others will do. Students of McAuley are concerned with creating an atmosphere of happiness and joy for all.

Getting Involved! It takes hard work and long hours, but in the end the rewards of personal satisfaction and accomplishment are plentiful. Involvement doesn't mean standing on the side and watching, but it means moving, working, and helping others to feel the satisfaction that you have found. McAuley is a school of involvement!

On September sixth Rosanne Rosanna Danna, Lisa Lubner, and other Saturday Nite Live characters visited McAuley and revealed the secrets of McAuley life to the freshmen.

The seniors welcomed the newcomers to McAuley with baby bottles, bibs, rubber ducks and other necessities needed to make a freshman's first year complete. The freshmen enjoyed everything from pizza and chicken to watermelon and Doritos. The sunny weather permitted games and fun for all. Red Rover came over, the cheese stood alone, little Sally sat in her saucer, and Miss Lucy, like all the freshmen, strutted behind the seniors to a new beginning.

The music of Anzac welcomed sophomores, juniors and seniors and their escorts into McAuley's Date Dance, "You and Me Against the World." Music varied from disco to mello tunes ending with "Stairway to Heaven." Shimmery disco dresses and skirts appeared to be the popular attire. The dance was held on October 13 and will be remembered by many.

The class of 1982 escorted their favorite dates on October 26 to McAuley's Annual Sophomore Father Daughter Dance. All girls gathered together to give One, Two, Three Cheers for Dad! A mixture of memories of their own high school years and a sense of pride as they watched their little girls grow up could be seen in many Fathers' eyes.

Eighteen new members, thirteen Seniors and five Juniors, were initiated into the 1979-1980 National Honor Society. These girls provide leadership, services and time to their churches, communities and schools. Scholastic ability and character are also considered in selecting the honorees. A scholastic average of 90-92% was required of the 78 Seniors and 57 Juniors considered. The new members were chosen by students, faculty, eligible candidates and a nine member board. Congratulations to all the new members!

Little Bo Peep and her sheep, clowns of all kinds, a box of wheaties, elephants, and even a breakfast table were part of the 1979 Sophomore Halloween party. On October 31 the class of '82 disguised their true identities with make up, costumes, and masks. Treats were given, no tricks were played, and all enjoyed themselves, leaving McAuley in the spirit of Halloween.

McAuley Mohawks adopted a new sport in their 1979 season, halfbacks, fullbacks, goalies and linemen make up the new soccer team. Coached by Mrs. Dysart, new experiences and goals were achieved. The team's record was four wins, five losses and one tie.

Volleyball: A game of strength, determination and intense competition. Girls devote hours of time to improve their skills. McAuley Mohawks with their overpowering serves, graceful sets, and mighty spikes strive to conquer all. During the 1979 season, the Mohawks had a successful record. The Varsity won eight games and lost seven. The Junior Varsity's record was seven wins and five losses, and the freshman won two and lost four.

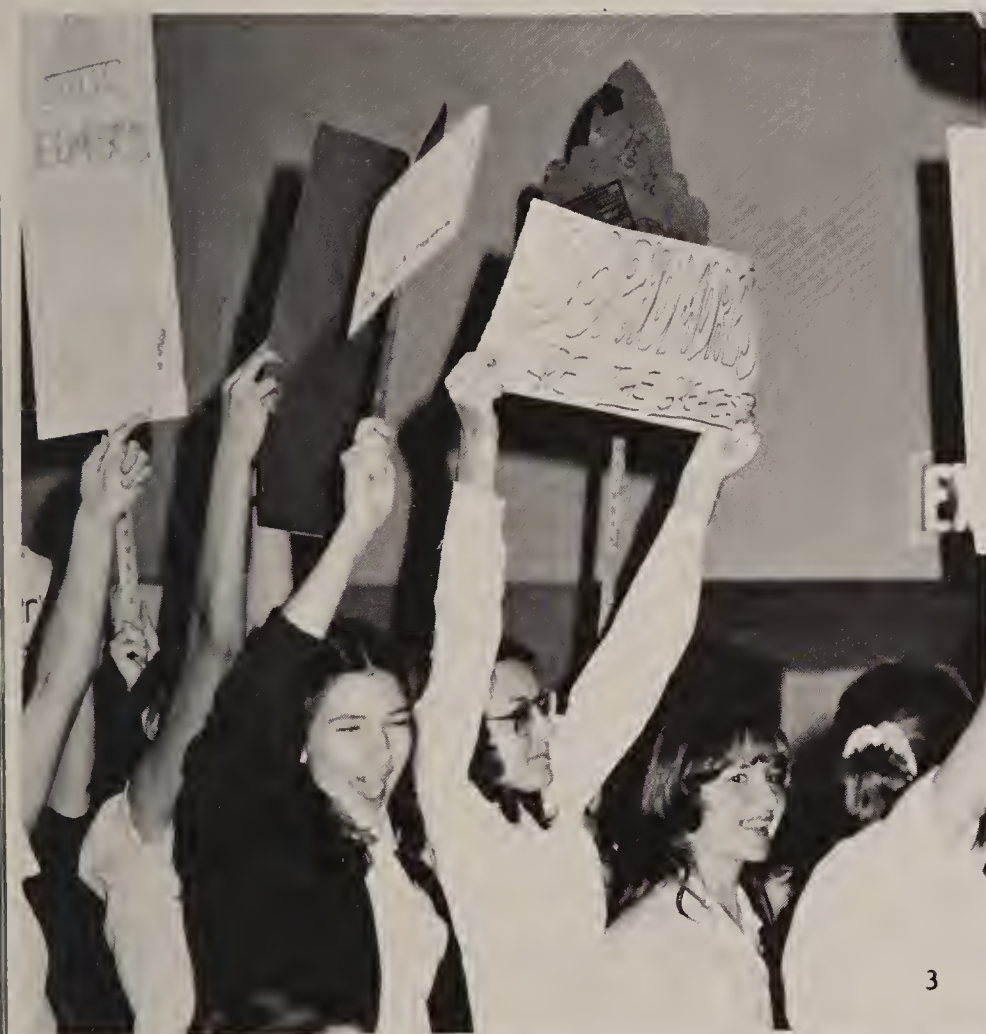

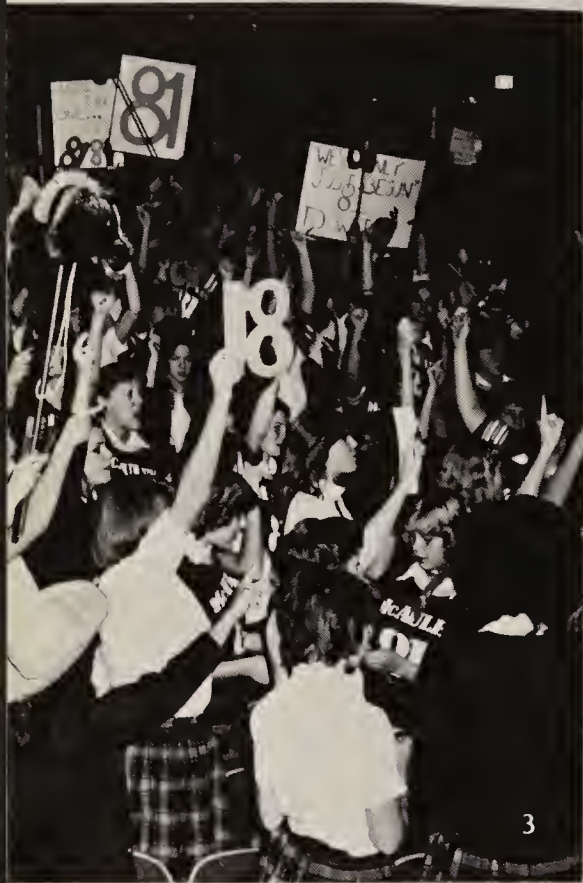

Friday, November 9, McAuley launched their annual raffle. Each class expressed their eagerness and spirit through skits. Freshman are "Makin' It!", Sophomores are Super, Mr. Roberts and the Juniors say "Sure we can!" and the Seniors have all caught an exotic jungle disease, "Yellow Fever." But McAuleans "won't stop till they reach the top" and go over their goal of $30,000.

All of the McAuleyans succeeded in "Climbing every staircase, knocking on every door. Selling all their chances, and then they sold some more."

The top selling homeroom was Mr. Junker's, room 122. Sr. Amadeus was the top selling faculty member, selling $540. Erin Monahan was the top selling girl, selling $525.

softly in the wind,
blanking the earth.
They fall, one by one drifting from the clouds and bringing the memories of winter.

McAuley and LaSalles' Glee clubs and McAuleys' Senior Chorus entertained the spirited crowd who attended an "Old Fashioned Fantasy" at McAuley on December ninth at 8:00. Decorations enhanced the stage with Christmas beauty, and carols chimed throughout the auditorium. It was truly a trip to a world of fantasy and enjoyed by all.

On December 18 from 7:00-9:00 the Little Sis were entertained by their Big Sis at the annual Big Little Sis Christmas party. The guest at the party was Santa (alias Mr. Junker)

It was the Tuesday before Christmas and all through McAuley
The halls were all filled with tinsel and holly
The cafeteria was decorated for the party with care
Knowing that Santa would entertain all who were there.
The little sisters by the big sisters were eagerly led
And visions of goodies danced in their heads.
The seniors and freshman together unite
To wish all a Merry Christmas and to all a good night.

"Seventies a'la carte" the theme for the 1980 Junior Variety Show, re-enacted the styles, fads and tunes of the seventies. The show was a success with the assistance of Ms. Vissing, faculty advisor; A. Ross and M.J. Zorb, student directors; and M. Dahlstrom and D. Colina stage managers. "Nadia's Theme," "King Tut," and "Tusk" are just a few of the songs that were performed, that made the show very enjoyable.

Pantomime, pottery, and "Peter and the Wolf" were all a part of Fine Arts Week, which was February 25-29. The student lounge turned into an art studio, featuring everything from abstract art to a stage make up technique demonstration. Vocal Ensemble entertained an audience with "Clap Your Hand Hands," and the Pink Panther pranced across the stage in the form of a song played by the orchestra. A large variety of creative and well developed talents were displayed during the week.

The Mohawks

Mohawks strive to reach the ball, shoot the shot and beat their rivals. Centers, forwards and guards dribble and pass to beat the clock. Teamwork and spirit between the girls contribute to their victories.

The Varsity team lead by Mr. Jim Schneider had a win and loss record of thirteen and nine. The reserve team coached by Mr. Chuck Buhrman dribbled themselves to a record of fourteen wins and six losses. Kelly Monahan coached the Freshman team to a record of seven wins and three losses.

Graceful floor routines, cartwheels and aerials are all a part of a gymnast's life. Along with the beauty of the sport, pulled muscles, mat burns and disappointing falls are also a part of the action. Determination and a strong will overcome the fallen expectations. The Mohawks tumbled and flipped to a record of four wins and three losses.

In mid April, McAuley bursts into a laughter of anticipation. Signs of Spring are everywhere. Sweaters and kneesocks are replaced by bobbysocks and tans. Windows open and once again the classroom is interrupted with a buzz of bees. The days become longer, the sun shines on! Countdowns become a daily routine. Eyes wander, daydreaming of up coming months. Vacation!

McAuley Genesians put on their cowboy hats and spurs and gallopped into the wild west when they put on "Annie, Get Your Gun," March 22-24. The affairs of Annie Oakley and Buffalo Bill became a part of McAuley as they were broadcast each morning. Three magnificent performances were the result of a lot of hard work, time and effort put forth by the genesians.

SPRING CONCERT — MAY 7, 1980

McAuley turned into a circus of songs on May 7 when the Fine Arts Department presented "Carousels", the annual Spring Concert. The orchestra, Senior Chorus, Glee Club & Vocal Ensemble combined to form one of the most memorable & decorative Spring Concerts yet.

The freshmen and the seniors got an early taste of summertime on May 7th at the "Lil-Big Sis Picnic." The little sisters supplied the food, but all pitched in to create the fun. It was the freshmen way of saying: "Thanks and Good Luck in all your tomorrows!"

We strive for a goal.
To reach the top. To be our best.
Whether it be winning a school election
Or simply passing a Biology test.
We are constantly reaching.
There is no limit to what we can do.
Willpower and discipline are needed.
And sometimes a little luck too.
But when we've found our rainbow and our pot of gold
The feeling that fills and warms us
Is one which never grows old.

We've Only Just Begun

Monday night, June 2, arrived as just an average night for most people, excluding the McAuley juniors. For the 1981 McAuleyans who roamed the halls wearing berry sweaters, this night represented something special. The berry sweater was no longer a sign of a junior, but of a senior! This was the night the class of '81 officially became the seniors of McAuley!

Saturday evening, April 12, 1980; Paris Old fashioned French cafes and minstrels serenading special someones with April songs of love. A familiar Paris filled with friends, laughter, fun and touching moments. A Paris not soon forgotten.

The junior class presented "April in Paris" to the senior class at Convention Center. April songs of love were played by Borderline. The Prom Court, Gayla Dye, Sharon Hamant, Carol McCarty, Jenna Otten, Karen Rutz, and Patty Stretch received a rose, and Katie McMahon was crowned Prom Queen.

We sit together as a family for one of the last times. We talk of good times, with our mothers there to share in our memories. They have been and always will be a major part of our lives. They were always there when we needed someone to talk to, some friendly advice, or just a shoulder to cry on. Our lives have always been one, but now we separate, to live our own lives. Each of us takes a certain path in life to fulfill our own personal goals. We take off our plaid skirts and slip into a new outfit. It could be a career or marriage, or college. From students we become women seeking a bright new future. We open doors to other worlds, our worlds.

GOLDEN FRIENDSHIP

A Brand-new Day for us has come
 Our dreams awaken with the sun
 We reach out to greet the Dawn
 Yet before we can go on
 We must stop to thank the ones we love
 For their caring through the night
 And we know within our hearts that
 The Lord will be our Guide
 Giving love ... Giving hope ...
 As Darkness fades to Light.
 Remember how we used to be
 Laughing, crying, running free?
 Yesterday we viewed the world
 Through the eyes of little girls.
 Yet the beauty we discovered then
 Is alive in us today;
 In our dreams and in our memories
 A Little Girl will play.
 Older now ... Yet the same ...
 Her spirit's here to stay.
 We stand and face the sun's bright rays
 Before we go our separate ways
 Future's bells begin to chime
 We must keep in step with the Time.
 With a note of sadness in our hearts
 We look back on what is done
 Yet our lives here have not ended
 They've only just begun
 So my friends ... Though we part ...
 Our hearts remain as one
 On our way ... Our new Day.

Eclairs, tacos and lasagna, all appeared on the menu the week of March 10-15, which was International Week. Irish and German dancers performed their jigs in the auditorium and Mr. Murray received a standing ovation for singing, "When Irish Eyes are Smiling." Wednesday, instead of searching for the water fountain, students had to find the "el Fountaine de agua." "Parlez Vous Francais?" McAuley did for a day. On Friday, which portrayed Latin, one had to know the difference between puelae and viri in order to know which restroom to go into.

March 5 differed from most school days at McAuley because the freshmen, sophomores and juniors participated in an annual event: Awareness Day. The seniors enjoyed a day off because of senior retreats. The decision of married life, single life or the religious life was the theme of this year's Awareness Day. Miss Susan Corfagna talked of the single life, and Mrs. Mary Lynn Rapien revealed her views on the married life. The religious life was portrayed by Sr. Mary Lou Averbect and Sr. Sarah Marie Sherman. Prayers, songs, discussions and liturgies were a major part of the day and involved many.

The GAA Banquet was held May 13 in the cafeteria for all GAA members and their parents. Trophies were given to Most Valuable Player, Most Improved Player, and Coach's Award, which symbolizes spirit, enthusiasm and responsibility as a team member.

McAuley kicks off the year with soccer
And crosses the finish line with track.
Spirit! Spunck! Spark!
None do the Mohawks lack.
The seasons roll off tennis rackets,
Bounce off backboards and volley over a net.
The ultimate goal of all team members
Is to conquer all opponents yet.

The precious moments we spent each day,
have affected everyone of us in a special way.
We look back at the memories and somehow recall,
the good times, the great times the smiles of us all.
"We've Only Just Begun" to reflect this special feeling, that gives us our purpose, our reason and our meaning.
But none could be accomplished which is certainly true,
without Sister Cheryl to help us pull through.

Student Council...

Thanks for supporting us!

08. Puyupua 1981

The Student Council of 1979-1980 wants to thank everyone for supporting our dances, assemblies, spirit and fundraisers.

Without you, there would be no need for us!

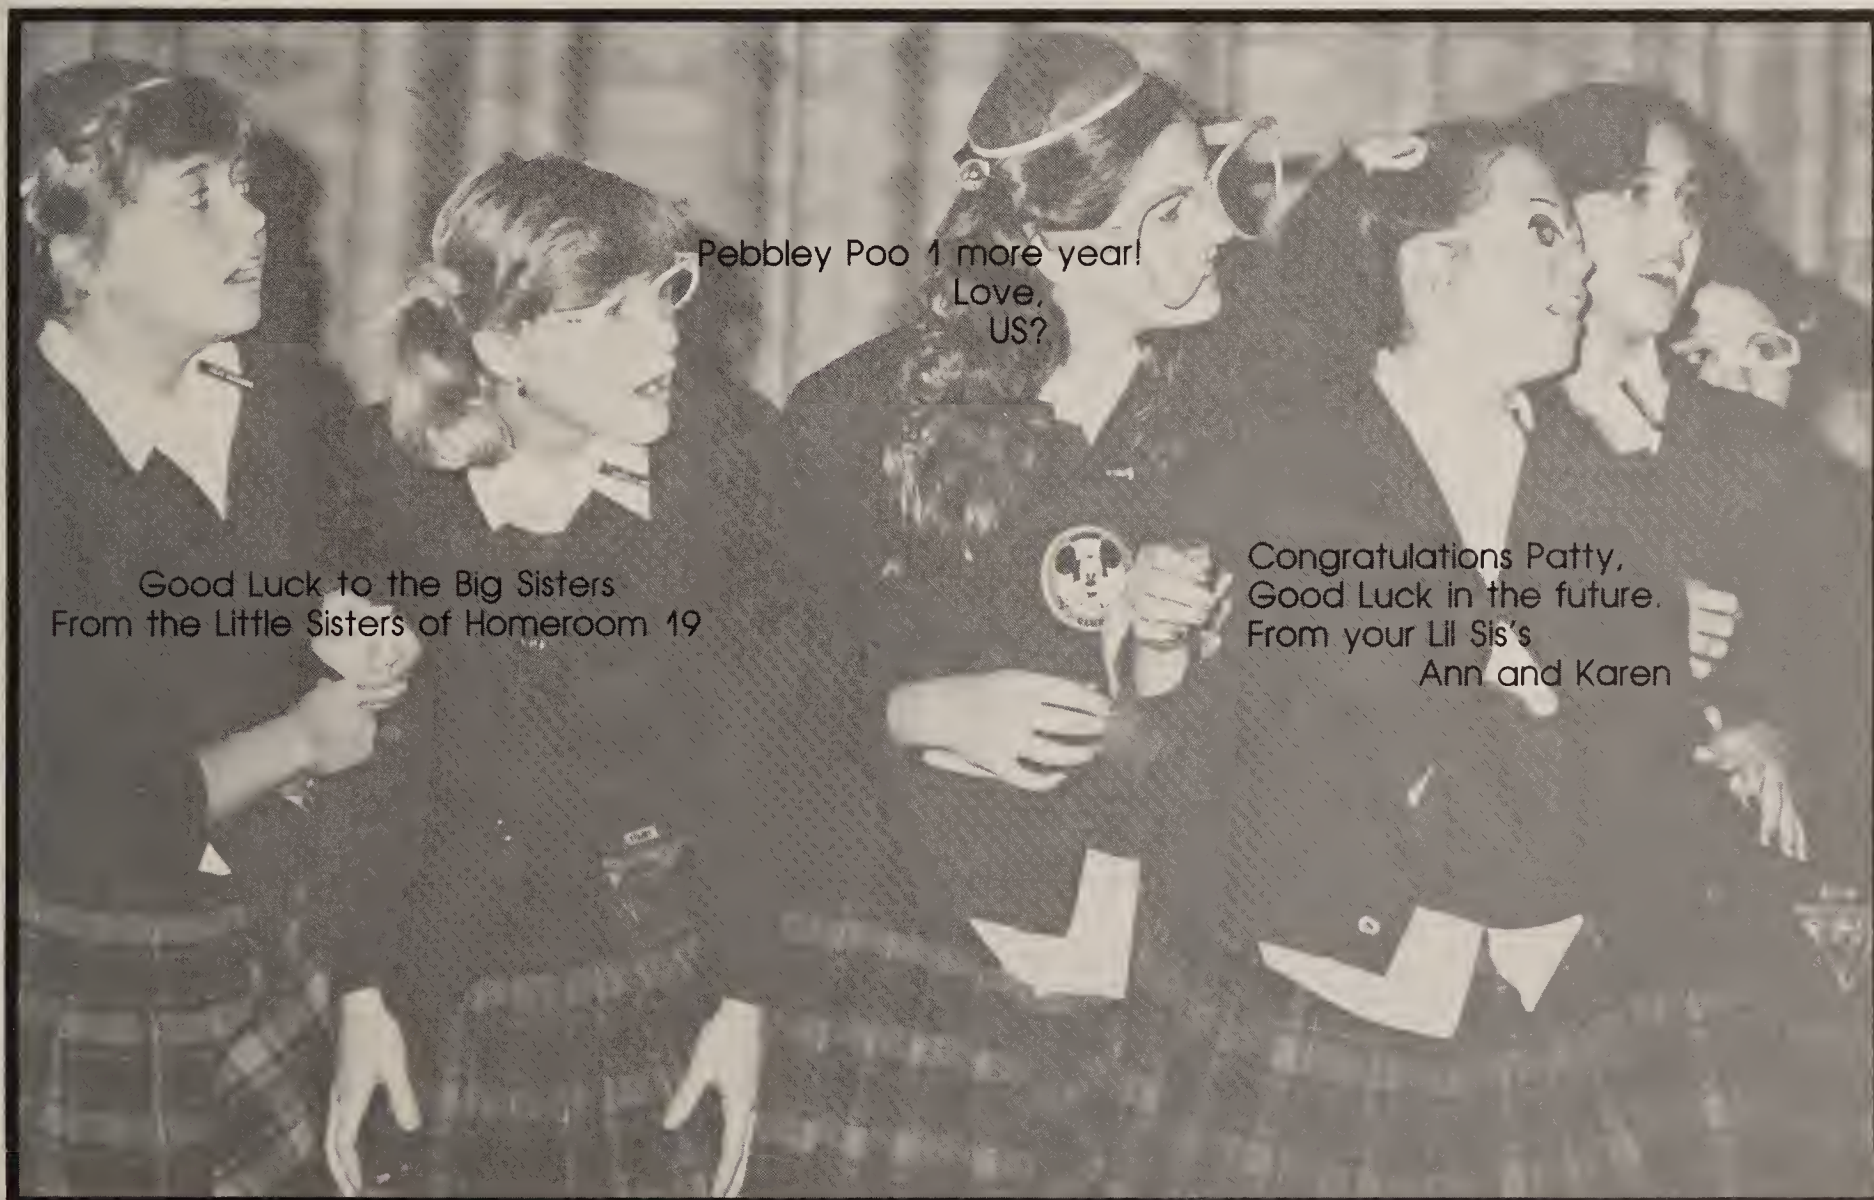

To: the Big Sisters
From: the Little Sisters of homeroom 20

Many are the ways,
many are the days.
You helped us learn and know,
You taught us how to grow,
You helped us through our strife,
Now help us through our life,
We'd like to help you, too,
Just tell us what to do!
